8 Non-Alcoholic Beers That Taste So Good, Your Friends Will Want To Drink Them

Bravus Brewing

Bringing the classic closer to home, Bravus is North America's first nonalcoholic craft brewery. Bravus Brewing was founded in 2015, and it has since perfected the art of no and low-ABV brews in a wide range of flavors and styles to please every face in the crowd. Want something that tastes like a beer-lovers beer? You can't go wrong with the classic, hazy or double dry-hopped IPA. Want something hearty? Explore the peanut butter dark or fan-favorite oatmeal dark. Looking for something sweet for summer? Try the strawberry blonde limited release, or the blood orange IPA, or the raspberry gose. Bravus even concocts sparkling hop waters called Whorl. These lemon and ginger-flavored drinks are infused with your choice of Delta-8, CBD or focus-forward adaptogens.
